DEDICATION

MR. ROBERT FAY

The Class of 1992 would like to dedicate our yearbook to a very special person, Mr. Robert Fay. Mr. Fay has served here at Old Colony for the past thirteen years as the Service Bureau Manager for the Data Processing Department. He has also spent the past ten years as a weekend security guard. His spirit and his willingness to help others has inspired all that have had the pleasure of knowing him through the years. He was always quick to speak a kind and loving word and his honesty and cheerfulness will be missed by those who know him.

The Class of 1992 and everyone here at Old Colony would like to recognize and thank Mr. Fay for his service, and for being a special part of our lives. We would like to wish him continued success in the future. May you fulfill your dreams, and enjoy a long, warm, happy retirement.

IN MEMORIAM

JAMIE REGAN

MARGO MELEO

When we heard the news,
We cried and cried.

We could hardly believe the truth,
That two so dearly loved had died.

It was just yesterday that we were one,
Full of thoughts of joy and fun.

The laughing and plans to celebrate,
Has now taken a turn of twisted fate.

Emotions flow with so much pain,
As hearts bleed and tears fall like rain.

It is at this time we begin to recall,
And we realize that we once had it all.

To say we must move on,
Is easier said than done.

When our friends are gone,
Their lives having just begun.

Jamie and Margo touched all they knew,
We only wish we knew what to do.

They were full of so much life, laughter and love,
But now we know they are resting above.

Desert Storm Commander General H. Norman Schwarzkopf gave a thumbs up to the crowd as he made his way up Broadway during New York's Operation Welcome Home parade in June 1991. Over 600,000 people attended the parade to welcome home the troops. The celebration was capped off by a fireworks extravaganza.

During the seven-month Iraqi occupation of Kuwait, more than 730 oil wells were damaged or set ablaze. Firefighting crews have been able to extinguish 584 wells since the effort began in March 1991.

On July 11, 1991, the moon slipped over the sun in the celestial ceremony of the eclipse, turning day into night for thousands of viewers and scientists. One of the objectives for the scientists was to learn more about the sun's corona.

1992's film of the year, "Silence of the Lambs," stirred horror in the hearts of many that viewed it. Behind the scenes of Hollywood, there actually exists a man who is a real serial killer. The most terrifying thought is that he was known as a "normal" person, a man who worked in a Chocolate Factory and led a quiet life. Milwaukee's 31-year old Jeffrey Dahmer's secret was revealed as he has confessed to seventeen grotesque murders. Other dark aspects of his life include his troubling history of alcoholism, and sex offenses. Through research conducted by the FBI's behavior science unit, we hope to find a pattern which will help us in the future to prevent these senseless, violent crimes.

When a tape of Rodney King, a black man being senselessly beaten by Los Angeles police officers was originally released, a considerable amount of controversy developed. A year later, the tension exploded after the four white police officers who had attacked him were acquitted, even though the tape was used as powerful evidence. The verdict sparked violence that revealed racial divisions that had plagued the city for years. The violence included looting, burning, beatings, and killings. For more than 48 hours, an urban nightmare came true, as hatred ruled the streets. During that time, parts of the city virtually ceased to function. The 7,800 members of the police department were assisted by 2,000 National Guard Troops and 4,500 federal troops. Rebuilding the city, and healing the hurts of the people was a long, intense process.

The brush fire that killed 19 people in Oakland, CA, was the costliest blaze in US history — the damage was put at more than $5 billion.

Pushed by 25 mph winds across brush that had been dried by five years of drought, the October 1991 blaze destroyed more than 1,800 houses and 900 apartments.

At least 19 people were killed, 148 injured, and 5,000 evacuated.

President Bush declared the fire site a major disaster area, opening the door to federal aid for the rebuilding.

For the first time in US History, five presidents gathered together to open the doors of President Reagan's presidential library on November 5, 1991. The Spanish style structure is nestled on 100 acres about 50 miles from Los Angeles. "The doors of this library are open now and all are welcome," Reagan said. "The judgement of history is left to you, the people."

Over 500,000 marchers converged on Washington to participate in the largest demonstration in the Capital's history. The next day, the administration still renewed its call to overturn Roe vs. Wade, the 1973 case that established the constitutional right to abortion.

A wild night of partying and bar hopping ended in an ugly charge of rape for one of America's most famous families. William Kennedy Smith was accused and put on trial for charges of rape. 27-year old Michele Cassone, a waitress at Testa's Restaurant, accused Smith of raping her on the beach after he had gone swimming. The jury found Mr. Smith not guilty.

During Clarence Thomas' confirmation hearing Anita Hill went public with her accusations of sexual harassment against Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas. Before the days of exhausting testimony would end, Hill would coolly and impassively detail the nature of Thomas' alleged harassment while she worked for him in government positions. "What happened and telling the world about it are the two most difficult experiences of my life." She says she does not regret coming forward — even though Thomas was confirmed. She offered one piece of advice to victims of sexual harassment. "Try to find someone you can trust and tell them," she said, "Try to find somebody who can make you feel you are not at fault. Find someone you can trust because you can't take it all out on yourself, you can't internalize it."

Soviet President Mikhail S. Gorbachev and his family were placed under house arrest in the Crimea on August 19, 1991 as an eighty man emergency committee led by Vice President Gennady Yanayev took power in a coup attempt in the Soviet Union.

Boris Yeltsin called on Russians to resist the takeover. Constructing a protective human wall around Yeltsin's headquarters, his supporters demanded Gorbachev's return.

When the Communist party denounced the takeover, Yanayev and the other coup leaders fled Moscow. Latvia and Estonia declared immediate independence from the Soviet Union.

The coup had failed, and before the day was through, all coup leaders were arrested, except for Interior Minister Boris Pugo, who reportedly killed himself.

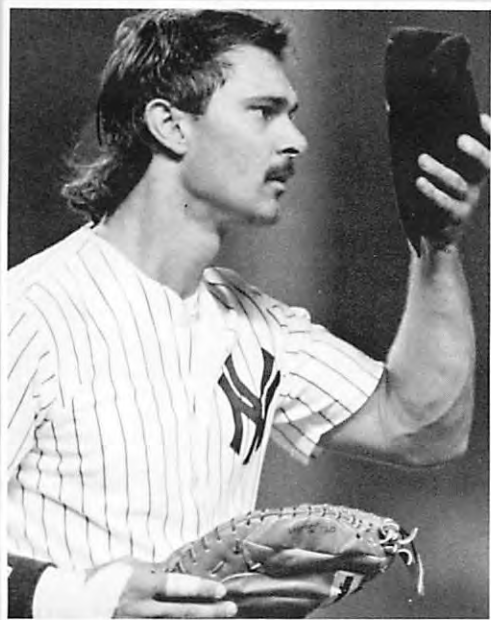

Freedom has come to the Soviet Union.

On September 14, 1991, Carolyn Suzanne Sapp from Honolulu, Hawaii shed tears of joy as she was crowned Miss America. Within days, however, her experience of physical abuse from her boyfriend became public knowledge. Carolyn Sapp has put the trauma behind her and gone forward with strength and courage to win the Miss America crown. She has selected the issue of parental responsibility as the social issue she will focus on during her reign.

After 2,455 days, Hostage Terry Anderson won his freedom at last. He was taken by Islamic Jihad four days after the US vetoed a UN resolution that condemned Israeli action in Southern Lebanon in 1985. His spirits were incredibly high for someone who had been tortured for almost 6 and a half years.

Highlighting this years Winter Olympics from Albertville, France were the figure skating events. American skater Kristi Yamaguchi won the hearts of people around the world as she skated a gold medal performance in woman's figure skating. American Nancy Kerrigan captured the bronze medal in the same event. In other Olympic news, speed skater Bonnie Blair won the first medal of the Olympics for the Americans, and was the only American to win two gold medals. A total of 11 medals were earned by the USA.

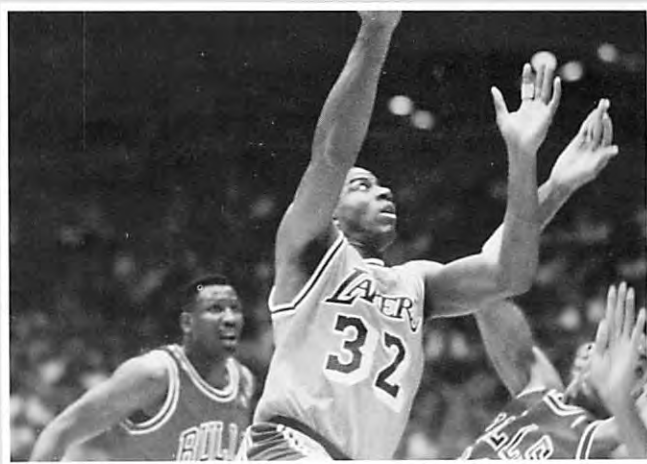

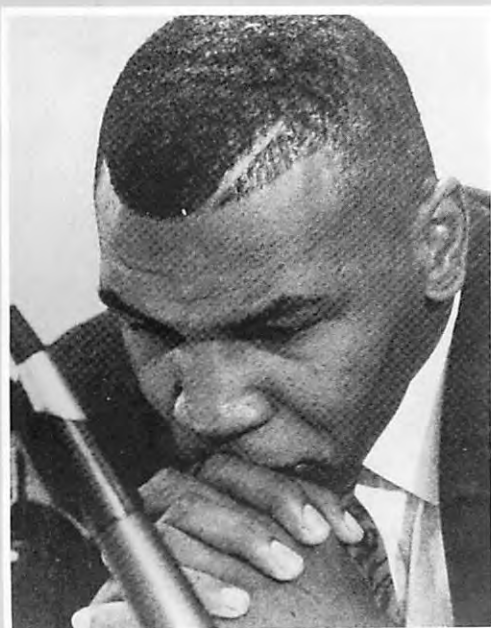

Don Mattingly received national attention for more than his baseball expertise in August 1991. A flat refusal to get a haircut resulted in his being benched just before the New York Yankees game against Kansas City.

The Minnesota Twins squeezed past the Atlanta Braves 1-0 on pinch hitter Gene Larkin's single in the bottom of the 10th inning on October 27, 1991 to win Game 7 and end baseball's most dramatic odyssey. Twins coach, Tom Kelly said "Someone had to go home a loser, but there's no loser in my mind. Those are two of the greatest teams. I just didn't want to quit. Somehow, we found a way to win this thing."

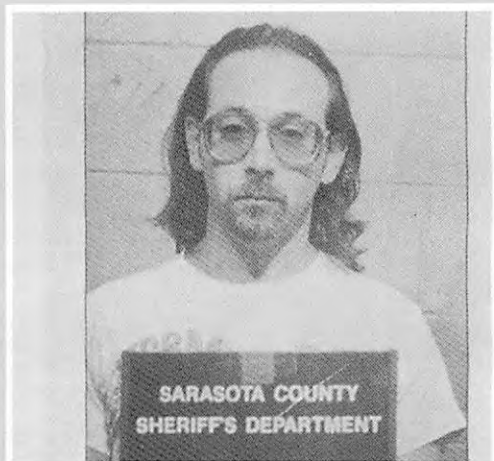

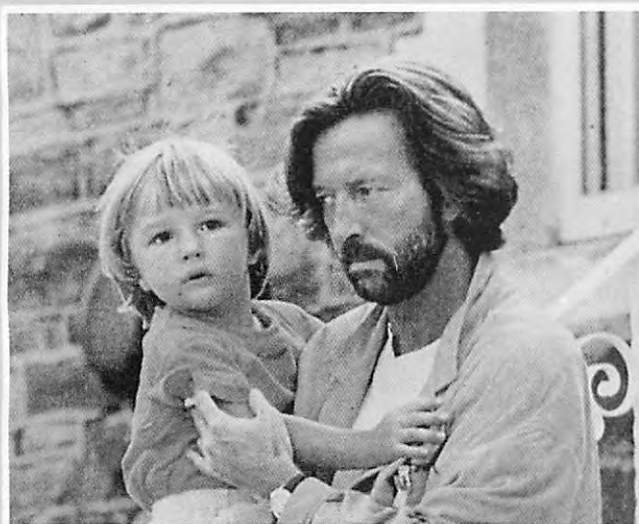

Mark Rypien was named MVP of the Redskins 37-24 Super Bowl victory over Buffalo on January 26, 1992. Most of Super Bowl Sunday was spent in anticipation of the biggest game Rypien would ever play. He completed 18 of 33 passes for 292 yards and two touchdowns.

World Champion boxer Mike Tyson is now a convicted rapist. Desiree Washington, an eighteen year old beauty queen came forward with her story of Tyson's brutal attack. He lured her into his room in the Canterbury Hotel in Indianapolis. Tyson will serve six years in prison and will pay $30,000 in fines.

Superstar Magic Johnson shocked the world with his announcement to retire. His reason, he has tested positive for the deadly HIV virus which causes AIDS. Johnson, a well-known basketball player for the Los Angeles Lakers holds several honors. He was named the NBA most valuable player for 1987, 1989, and 1990. He is the all-time assists leader with 9,921. Johnson's plans are to become a spokesperson for the AIDS virus.

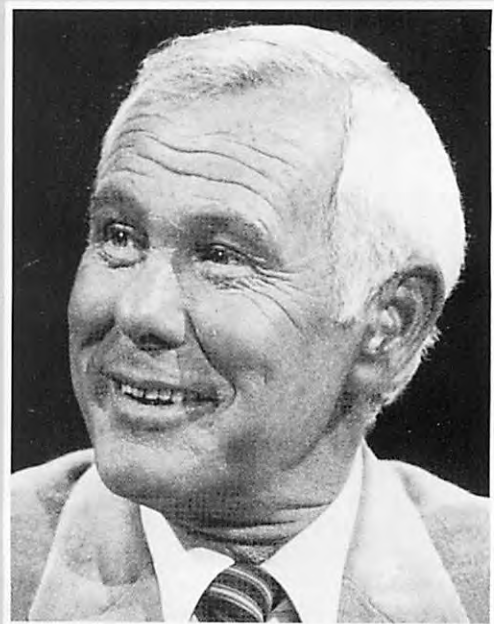

Paul Simon is still singing after all these years. On August 15, 1991, Simon stepped on stage for a free concert at Central Park that lasted over 3 hours. The concert was attended by over 500,000 fans. The tour lasted about 14 months.

On October 6, 1991, celebrity Michael Jackson hosted Elizabeth Taylor's eighth wedding. Taylor, 59, married Larry Fortensky who is 39. Special guests included Nancy Reagan, Zsa Zsa Gabor, Brooke Shields, and Barbara Davis.

Children's most bizarre television host, Pee Wee Herrmann, was the center of controversy. The real life Pee Wee, actor Paul Reubens was arrested for indecent exposure in a pornography theater. His ABC show, Pee Wee's Playhouse was taken off the air.

Well known singer Eric Clapton has experienced terrible tragedy in his life during 1991. 1991 was supposed to be a holiday for Eric Clapton. After spending the better part of the past two years on the road, he was ready for a rest. More importantly, he was going to spend some much needed quality time with his son, Conor. That all changed when his four and a half year old son fell to his death from the 53rd floor of the apartment where he lived. Clapton dedicated his next album to his son.

After 30 years, late night King Johnny Carson gave up his reign. Carson's late night rituals and idiosyncrasies have become comforting to million of viewers. On Monday, May 25, 1992, Carson was replaced by comedian James Douglas Muir Leno — better known as Jay Leno.

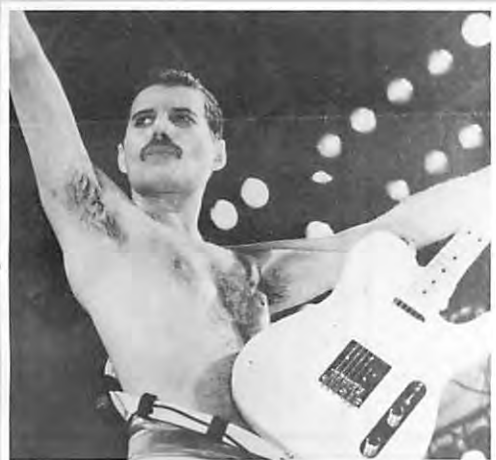

87-year old Theodore Seuss Geisel, known for his childrens stories died. His best sellers include: The Cat in the Hat, and Green Eggs and Ham. His accomplishments including winning an Oscar for the animated cartoon Gerald McBoing — boing, emmys for Grinch TV specials, and a Pulitzer citation. On November 23, 1991, Freddie Mercury, the lead singer of "Queen" died from the AIDS virus. Freddie Mercury was to rock music what the supernova is to astronomy. He shone brilliantly, and then burnt himself out. With such songs as "Bohemian Rhapsody," "Another one bites the Dust," and "We are the Champions;" Freddie Mercury will always be remembered.

This years hit show, Beverly Hills 90210, was a great success. It is based on the lifestyles of teenagers that live in Beverly Hills and attend West Beverly High School. Shows have presented issues such as racism, sex, drinking, and parent-child relations. Stars include Jason Priestly, who plays Brandon Walsh, the twin brother of Brenda Walsh, played by Shannon Daugherty. Luke Perry plays cool Dillan, who dates Brenda on the show. Producers feel that the show will last since the show relates to kids.

Oliver Stone's controversial movie, "JFK" has caused people to question the events prior to and after President John F. Kennedy's assassination in November, 1963. The film stars Kevin Costner, who portrays New Orleans District Attorney, Jim Garrison. The movie challenges us to reconsider the earlier theories that were presented to us by our government, and leads the viewer to believe that there was a conspiracy involving the CIA, the FBI, the Army and Navy, anti-castro Cubans, New Orleans low lifes, and the Dallas police force.

PUTTING THE PIECES TOGETHER

As children, we often occupied our time working on jigsaw puzzles. As we grew, the puzzles became more challenging. Likewise, the puzzles of life presented greater challenges as we matured. As young children, we spent our time wishing we were older. At age four, our only concern was to turn five, so that we could go to kindergarten and then continue on to elementary school. We soon wanted to be in junior high and our ultimate goal was to reach high school. As freshmen, we were anxious to be "upper classmen." The sands of time have somehow slipped through our hands, and we find ourselves preparing to enter the "real world."

Looking back, many of us wish we could've changed the way we did things. We remember the first day of school or our first love. We remember the friends that stood beside us, we remember the good times at parties, we remember the laughter, we remember the tears. Although many of us are from different backgrounds, and we differ in various ways, we all share similar experiences that hold a piece that fits into the puzzle. We sometimes wish that our youth wouldn't end and we could regain our childlike innocence. But it is time for high school to end, and we must move on to new things. The time went by so fast, and it would seem that only lasting things are memories. As time passes, many of us will have new friendships and have new interests, and the common bond we once shared will slowly seem to break. It can be compared to the puzzle that has been patiently pieced together, yet is quickly torn apart.

The puzzle of life will continue even after graduation. Some of us will be in college, while others are working or preparing to start a family. Many of us will be thousands of miles apart. The pieces of our puzzle will remain as one if we are able to keep the good memories close to our heart. We may not be able to keep in touch as frequently as we had hoped; but if we take the knowledge and experience we gained through the puzzling challenges of our early lives, we will have a strong foundation for future success. As we age, we will piece together the puzzle of life. Many of us will face difficult times, and experience tragedy. There will also be times of great happiness and joy. If we remembered the lessons we learned as children and young adults, we'll continue to build a unique and beautiful puzzle in our adult lives.
