Old Colony's graduation like a family reunion

By Collette Pelletier, Standard-Times correspondent June 6, 2004

Emotions ran high at the Old Colony Regional Vocational-Technical High School graduation ceremony held yesterday in the school's gymnasium.

"This last year has been filled with many different emotions," said a tearful Sarah Contois of Freetown, senior class president. "I have been dreaming about the future but also thinking about the past four years here."

Other class officers were Kristen Bisio of Lakeville, vice president; Nicole Gonsalves of Acushnet, secretary; and Jessica L. Harris of Lakeville, treasurer.

Old Colony faculty member Paul Brodeur gave the invocation. "Life is a journey where the destination is to discover yourself," he said. "Your life is not a journey you can sit out. It is not a spectator sport."

He also gave the 119 graduates some tips to follow in their lives. "Whatever you do in this life, make sure you help others. You won't have to look far to find people in need. "Simplify, simplify, simplify. Life can seem very complicated at times, but it doesn't have to be. "A thousand-mile journey starts with one step and it is important that you don't forget who you are along the way," he said.

For her part, Dawn Hughes, valedictorian and a Freetown resident, talked about the close-knit character of the class of 2004.

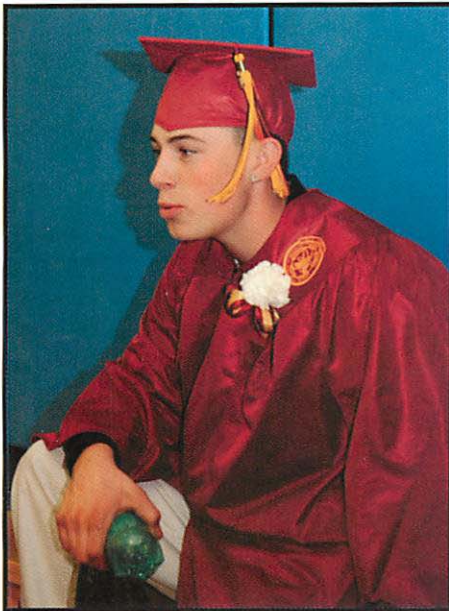

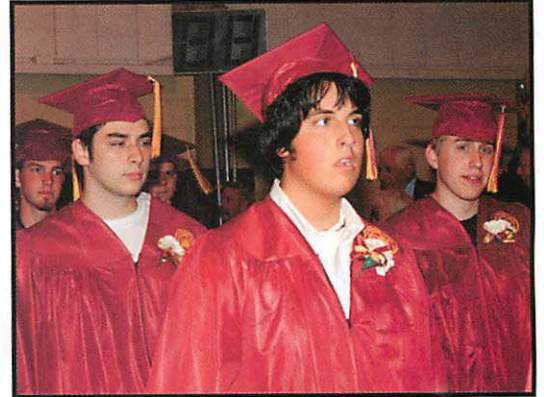

"Over the past four years at Old Colony, we have changed and grown into individuals, but also into a family," she said.

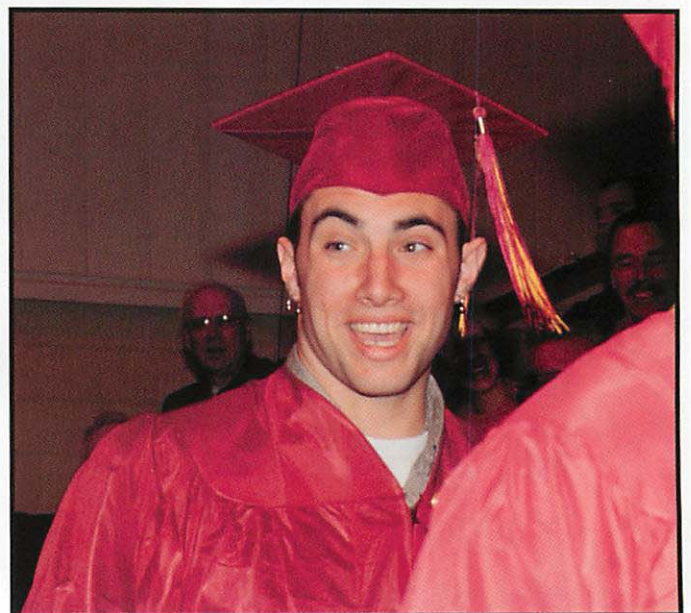

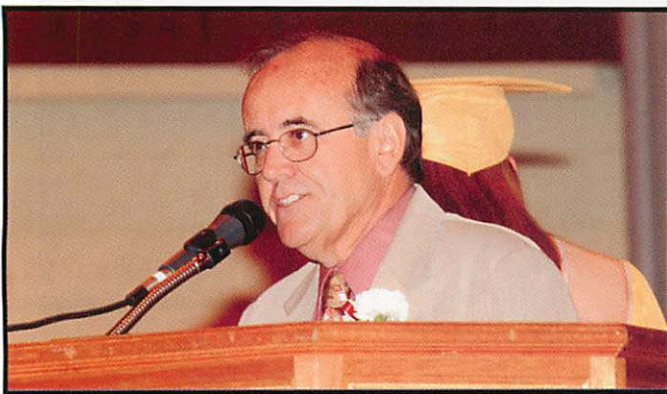

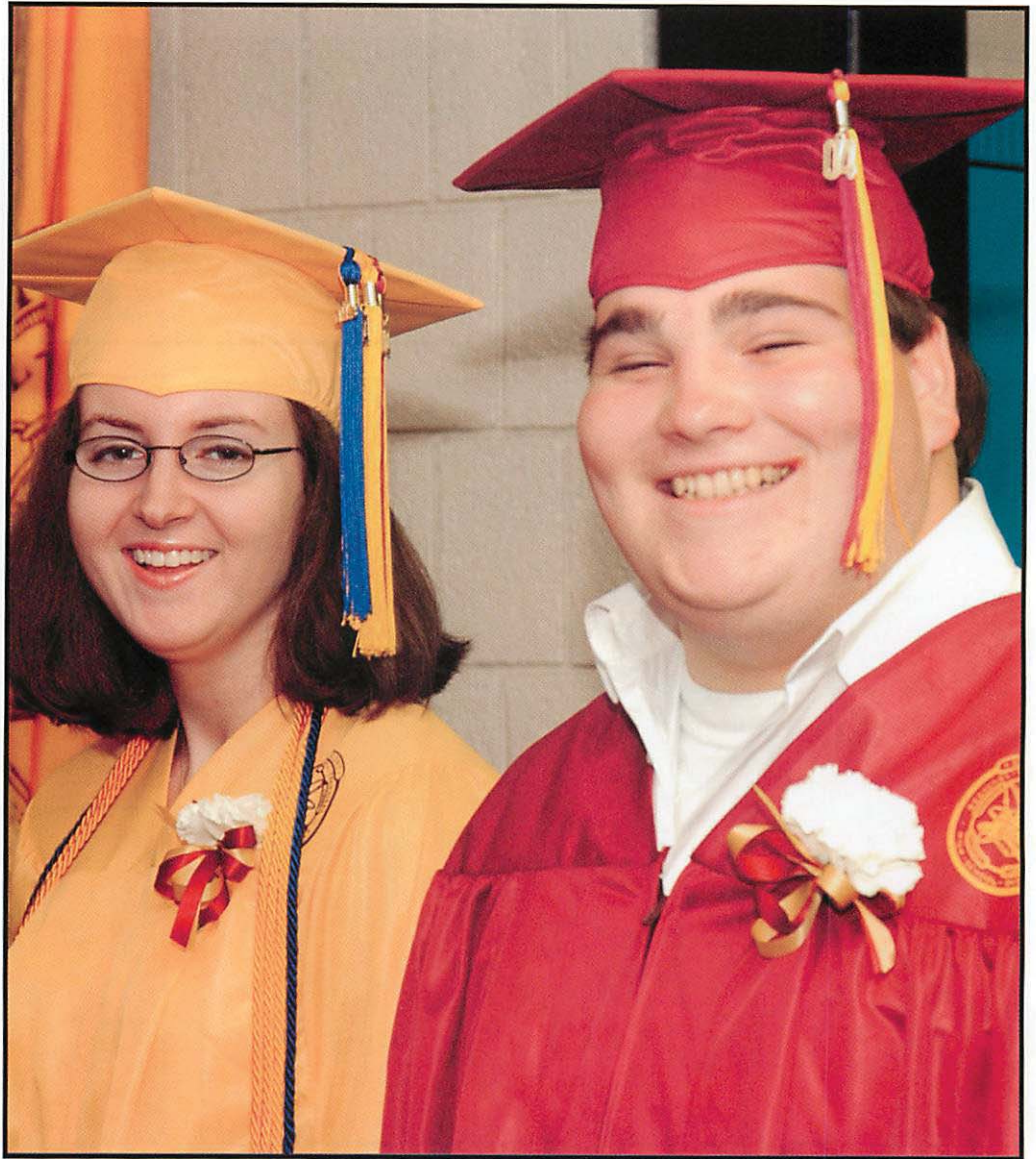

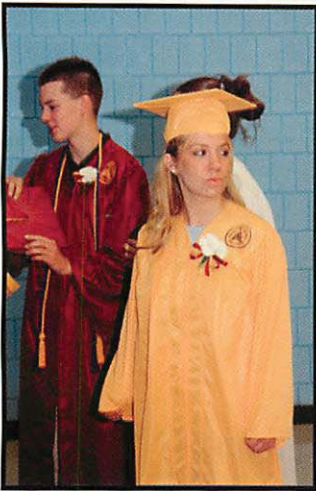

Ms. Hughes also gave her classmates, who hailed from Acushnet, Carver, Lakeville, Mattapoisett, Freetown and Rochester, some words to live by.

"Don't dwell on past failures or challenges but use them as a stepping stone for future successes," she said.

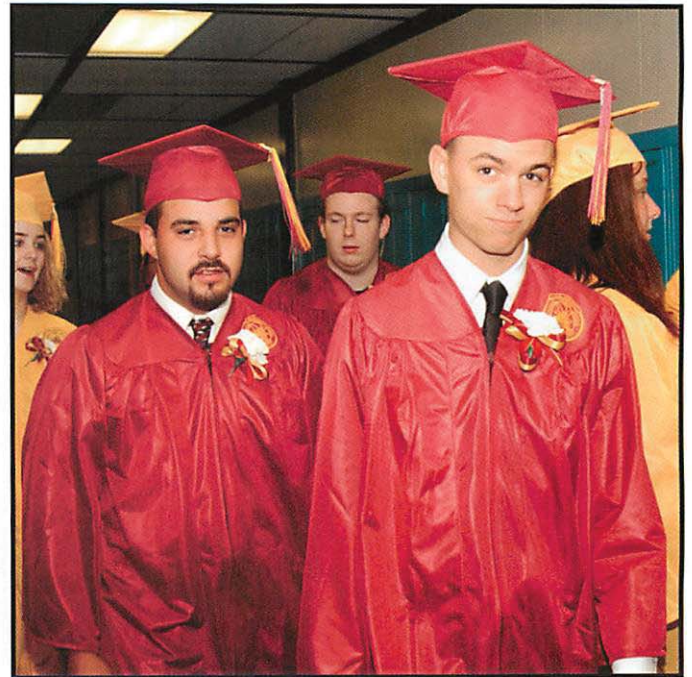

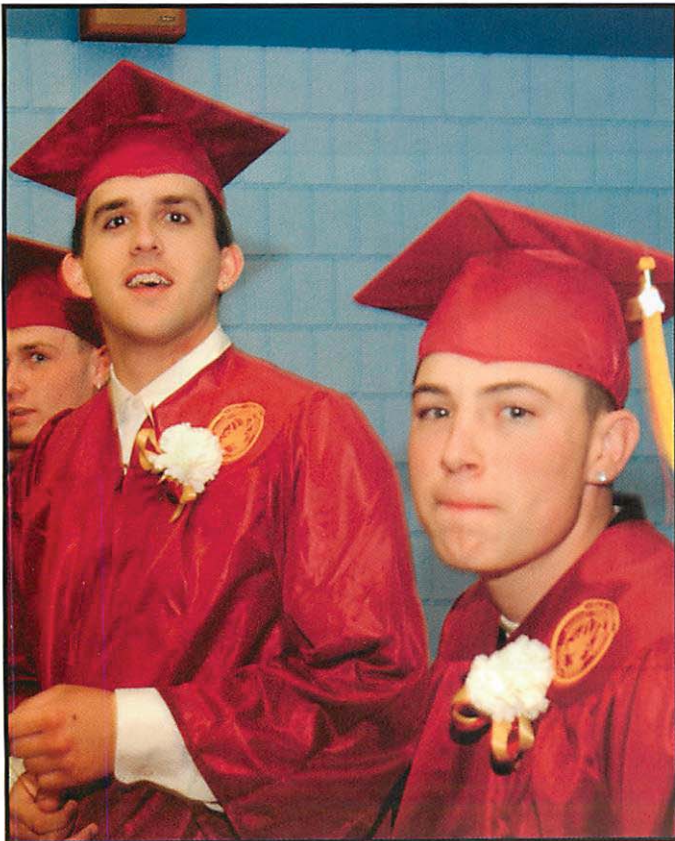

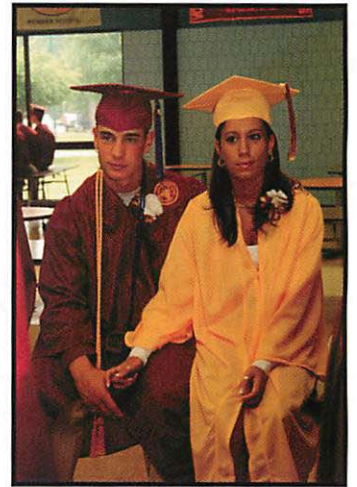

Meanwhile, David J. Ferreira, superintendent-director of Old Colony, congratulated the graduates on a successful four years.

"It's been a pleasure having you as students here. It is time for you to join the rest of our many successful graduates," he said.

It's So Hard To Say Goodbye To Yesterday

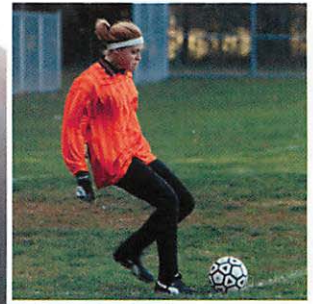

Boyz II Men

*How do I say goodbye to what we had?
The good times that made us laugh
Outweigh the bad.
I thought we'd get to see forever
But forever's gone away
It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday.
I don't know where this road
Is going to lead.
All I know is where we've been
And what we've been through.
If we get to see tomorrow
I hope it's worth all the wait
It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday.
And I'll take with me the memories
To be my sunshine after the rain
It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday.
And I'll take with me the memories
To be my sunshine after the rain
It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday.*
