

DEDICATION

The class of 1997 dedicates our yearbook to a devoted teacher, Mr. Stephen Rogers of the House and Mill Carpentry Department.

Throughout his years at Old Colony, Mr. Rogers has shared his time and knowledge with all his students. In his years with us, he has exhibited an interest in his students and a dedication in preparing them for the world of work.

We would like to extend our best wishes to him in his retirement and keep the scores low!

Through the Years

On Tuesday September 1, 1993, our Class of 1997 walked into Old Colony for Freshman Orientation which marked the beginning of our journey through high school. We were timid and unsure of what to expect. It was a fresh start in a place where few people knew us. Soon we made new friends and a place to fit in.

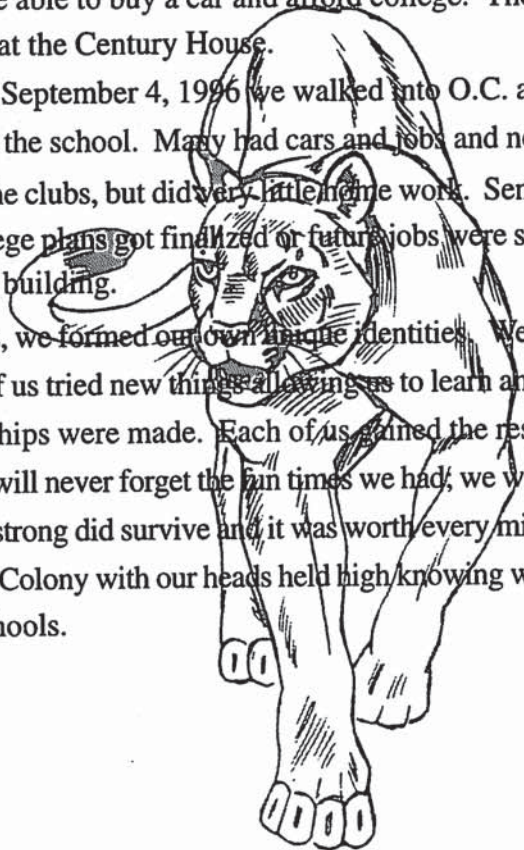

By our Sophomore year we were a little more mature. No longer the new-comers, we had some control. Most of us were settled in the shops of choice. Clubs and Athletics were our next priority.

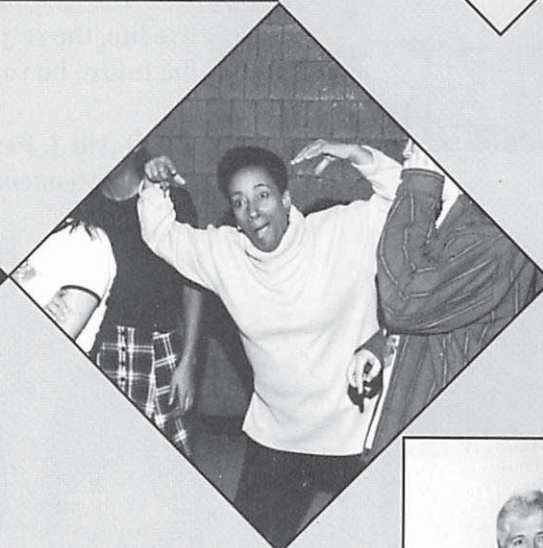

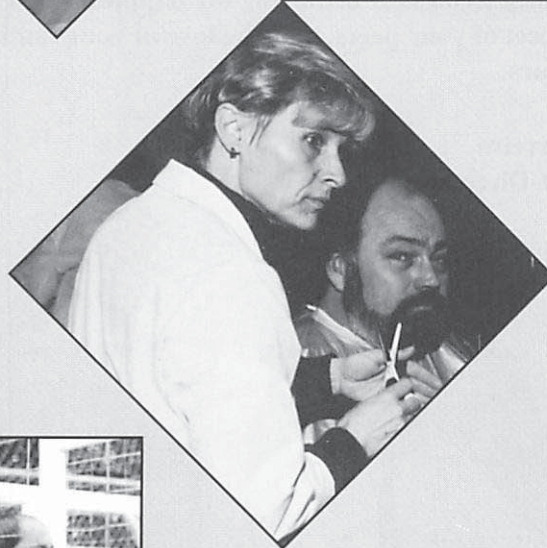

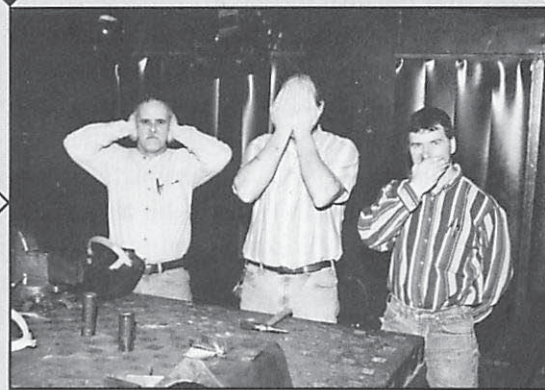

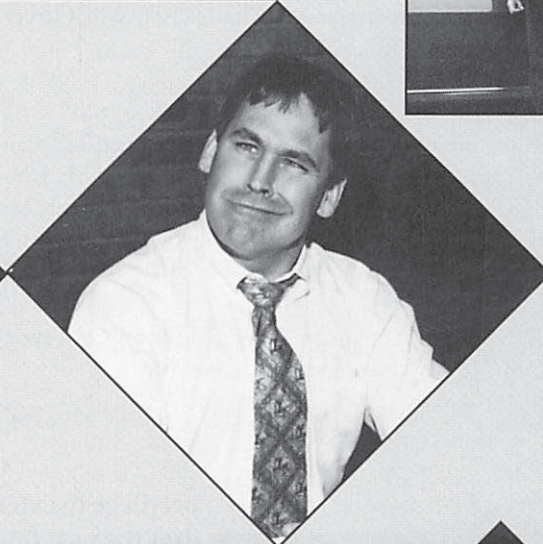

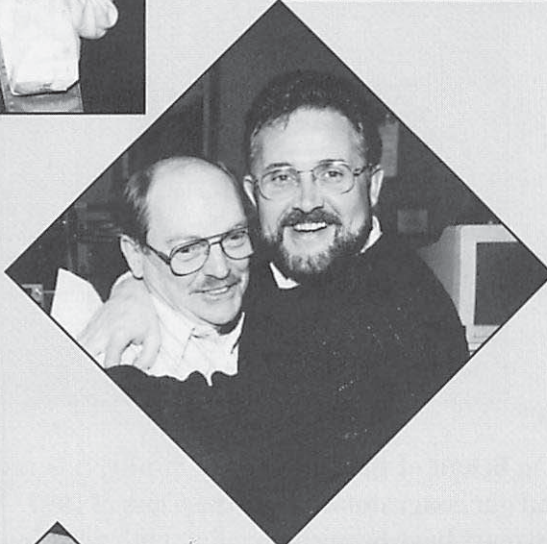

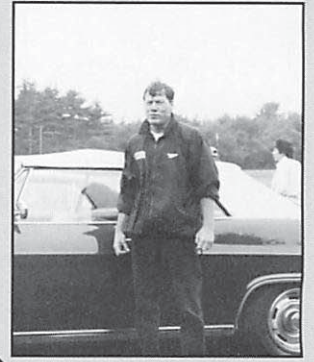

Things changed junior year. The academic work was more challenging and the college frenzy began for most of us. Our grades became more important as we started to consider the future. There were many who started co-op jobs. Part-time jobs became necessary in order to be able to buy a car and afford college. The year ended with Junior Prom at the Century House.

Finally, on September 4, 1996 we walked into O.C. as "Seniors." It was our turn to rule the school. Many had cars and jobs and nothing could be better.

We joined all the clubs, but did very little home work. Senior pictures were being exchanged. College plans got finalized or future jobs were secured. The excitement of graduation was building.

Through the years, we formed our own unique identities. We matured both physically and mentally. All of us tried new things allowing us to learn and grow from our mistakes. Long lasting friendships were made. Each of us gained the respect of our peers as well as of our teachers. We will never forget the fun times we had; we will always remember the hard times we shared. The strong did survive and it was worth every minute. After four years, we the Class of 1997, leave Old Colony with our heads held high knowing with pride that we have graduated from one of the finest schools.

On behalf of the Old Colony family, it is my sincere privilege to extend our congratulations to the Class of 1997. We trust that the past four years have been challenging both vocationally and academically. We are confident that you leave us well prepared for the future.

With the twenty-first century looming on the horizon, you are positioned as the leaders of our economic future. Your skills will serve as an important role in bringing economic stability to our region. You will be asked, as well, to meet the technological challenges of industry in the new century. We are certain you will be successful. As a class, you added to the proud history of our school. You set new standards in our vocational areas and on the athletic field. You helped us to maintain the tradition of Cougar pride.

Best wishes for achieving the happiness of a productive life, the respect of your peers, and the love of your family. May the future be yours.

SPECIAL STUDENT RECOGNITION

The class of "97" recognizes Paul Hubbard as an inspiration to all. He has touched us all with his kindness, unselfishness, and dedication to Old Colony.

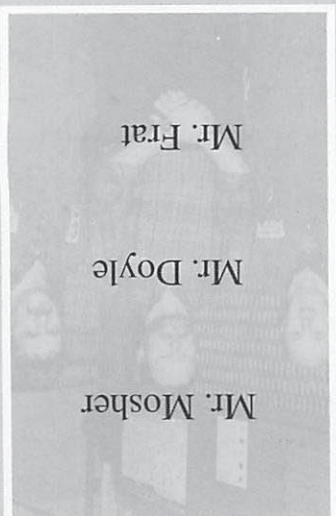

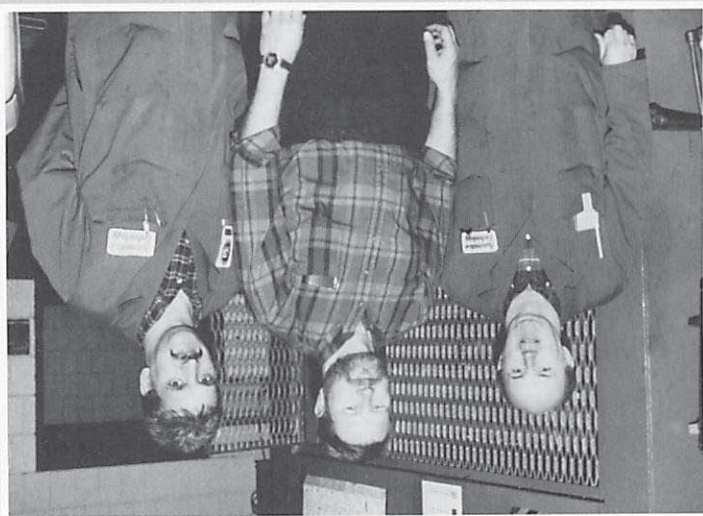

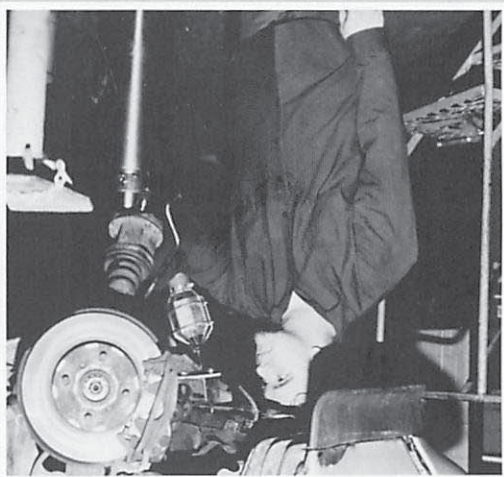

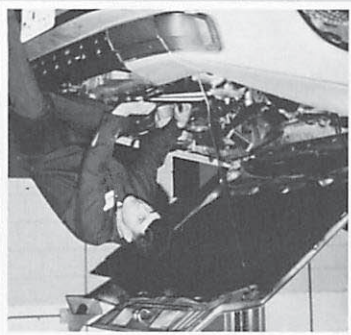

His positive attitude enabled him to be a strong leader as manager of the football team and senior class treasurer. Thank you Paul for being our friend and leader.
