

Title I

What is it and how can families get involved?

Our mission is to support and prepare students for the challenges of an evolving workforce and the demands of a global society; this is effected through emphasis on collaboration, social-emotional development and rigorous vocational-technical and academic courses. The educational foundation is established within a safe environment that values students' interests, needs and diversity while fostering responsible, productive citizens in our community

What is Title I?

Title I is a Federal Program that provides financial assistance to local schools to meet current educational needs of all students and to help ensure that all students reach high academic standards.

The Program provides extra help to eligible students who would benefit from additional academic support and/or have not received Competency Determinations on the MCAS tests. Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School is committed to creating innovative and comprehensive educational opportunities for every student and enabling each student to attain his or her highest potential.

How can families get involved?

Monitoring attendance.

Making sure that homework is completed.

Monitoring amount of screen time my student watches

Participating in Title I Workshops and parent/guardian meetings.

Participating in decisions about my student's education.

Checking my student's progress on SchoolBrains

Communicating concerns or significant changes in student's wellbeing

Staying informed about Old Colony's educational programming

Reading all notices from the school or the school district: responding as appropriate
